For the best viewing experience of this property, we suggest clicking on the Virtual Tour icon. This will provide you with the best way to explore the property remotely. Here we offer a charming property with a lot of character, ideally located on the outskirts of the old town of Javea. This location offers quick access via a short drive to Javea's main shopping areas and, of course, its stunning coastline. The property consists of a traditional country house, some dating back more than two centuries, with charming nayas where you can relax in the cool shade. Constructed on flat land, the house offers open views of the Montgo and the surrounding valley. It is perfectly complemented by tranquil patios, sunny garden areas and a free-form swimming pool. At the far end of the garden, there is a small orchard with various fruit trees located next to a fish pond featuring a waterfall. Entry is via the open naya, which leads to the spacious lounge/dining room featuring a wood-burning stove. From here, an archway leads into the cottage's kitchen, which has been tastefully modernized in rec...
